TRADITIONS

In Canada are most interesting annual festivals for every taste. This kind of event is part of the musical and theatrical arts, as well as the traditional sporting life of Canadians.

The world's largest Comedy festival, the Festival of Laughter, for use in the summer in Montreal. It attracts around 2 million spectators annually. Montreal is considered the best Canadian city entertainment. Most of them are held in summer. Every month can pass through 2-4 of the festival.

A magnificent Festival of Lights can be seen in winter in Vancouver. Fabulous Canadian celebration is timed to the Christmas and therefore is held in December. The city is decorated with thousands of shining lights, shapes of light, creating an indescribable impression of romance and ma.

HISTORY

On the basis of archaeological research it is believed that at the very beginning of the year 1000 Canada visited the ancient Vikings, however, these tribes used the areas of offshore Islands only for hunting and fishing. They made no attempts to conquer and colonize them. At the same time it was visited by the Iclander Leif Erikson. From this time the history of Canada ad.

Later, in the early fifteenth century Irish and French sailors arrived in the Gulf of St. Lawrence to Newfoundland and Labrador for the purpose of fishing. They made the first attempts to map these zones. For catching numerous cod to the shores of Canada came also and Portuguese sailors, in honor of one of which was later called the island of Labrador.

By the end of the 1490's, the British government equipped an expedition to search for sea routes to Asia. So, Italian Explorer Giovanni Cabot, travelling with this purpose, first landed in Bonavista. Island some time considered Asia. This expedition marked the beginning of the formation of the English colonies in Canada and the subsequent development of this land England. Until about 1600, the British have already been explored such canadian areas as the Baffin Islands, Strait Davison, Vancouver, British Columbia, James Bay and Hudson Belgic.

SYMBOLS

National symbols of Canada are traditionally considered to be a maple leaf and maple, moose, beaver, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The appearance of these characters due to the geographical location, natural and historical features of the country. The most famous of them is the maple leaf – it is depicted on the state flag and the coat of arms of Canada.
